TEXAS GEORGIA FLORIDA ALABAMA KENTUCKY DELAWARE TENNESSEE MISSOURI MARYLAND MISSISSIPPI LOUISIANA SOUTH CAROLINA

The above is the glorious report that the De nocracy South send to the conservative Democracy North. It is no exaggerated statement. Every present indication induce us to believe that Buchanan and Breckinridge will carry every State South of Mason and Dixon's line.

Kentncky is regarded by some enthusiastic Know Nothings as doubtful. But we regard it as certain for "Buck and Breck." There is no doubt but that the K. N. party is weaker in this State now than it was last August. Hundreds and thousands have harried out of the proscriptive organization, and will vote against the party in November. Many of the Old-Line Whigs who had not heretofore acted with us, are now rallying under the democratic banner in opposition to a party which we honestly believe has done more injury to the country than any party that ever existed; unless, perhaps, it be the organized bands of negro-thieves North.

The members of the "American" party may prepare to "hang their harps upon the willow tree;" for defeat is inevitable. The people of Buchanan is sound, safe and reliable. This regard the Constitutional rights of Kentucky as here we are! est hours of its political life, she has been a faiththe ministering angel, ever ready to arbitrate all work in such numbers as we can by fighting in the ranks of the democratic host.

Nothing is elect. At this time Kentucky plainly sees that the nocratic party is the most reliable. To vote against the democratic party at such a crisis will not only be an exhibition of base ingratitude, but of inexcasable folly. It is supremely culous to think for a single moment that Fillpre will stand the least chance of election. Then why should the people of Kentucky aid Fremant by giving her vote to Fillmore? Kennclians understand their interest. And in Nomber they will vote for Buchanan and Breckinridge; and thus show that they have not forgotten the many battles which have been fought and won for the South by the democratic party

It is possible he may have electoral tickets in the New will be merely nominal, and tickets are put up in the hope of drawing off the old line Whigs from Buchanan, and thus aiding Fremont.

The New York Mirror, an ardeut supporter of Mr. Fillmore, makes the following candid admis-

There is no question but Fremont will get more votes in New England than any other candidate. Fillmore will stand second, probably, in Massa-chusetts, Vermont and Rhode Island; and Buchanan will crowd Fremont hard in Connecticut. New Hampshire and Maine. The contest is between Buchanan and Freont, and the avowal is openly made by this illmore organ that the hopes of defeating Buchonen are based upon the supposed fact that Mr. Fillmore will take from him more Southern votes than he will take Northern votes from Freont. We will not believe that Kentuckians have not sagacity enough to see this frand, and spirit enough to rebuke it. There is but one way to defeat Fremont, and that is by voting for James

"Stanford,

Gov. Wise, of Virginia, in a Personal

Rencounter. July 7.-Hugh R. Pleasants, brother of the late John Hampton Pleasants, and formerly editor of the Penny Post, of this city, went this morning into the Executive Chambe of the Capitol, where Governor Wise was engaged in writing, and taking a seat by invitation of the Governor, said, after a brief period: "I thought Gizzard-foot was here." Gov. Wise smilingly replied, "I am the man."

Pleasants, rising from his seat and approaching the table at which the Governor sat, said: By God. I did not know you; and so you are Ebon-skin and Gizzard-foot?"

"I am," remarked Governor Wise, with nile, "and you are Hugh Pleasants." Pleasants therenpon commenced abusing the Governor without any provocation. The Governor ordered him to leave the room, but he refused to do so. The Governor then rose from his seat and approached Pleasants, and taking hold of his coat, endeavored to push him out. Pleasants resisted, squared off, and placed himself in an attitude to strike, when the Governor struck him with his fist under the left eye and cut him severely. then seized him by the arm, turned him around, and kieked him. At this time the messenger of the Executive came up.

The Contrast

Mr. Herbert is in prison at Washington, awaiting trial under a charge of murder. Mr. Brooks is held to bail and awaits trial for the assault on Sumner. So far the supremacy of the law is asserted without distinction of persons. But where are the Know Nothing villians who killed a Democratic elector in the streets of Washington, for aring to express himself in favor of the Union Mayor? Where are the officers who helped them to escape? Where are the assassins of Buel?— Where are the incendiaries and assassins of New Where are the rioters of Washington Orleans? City, who but the other day assailed the Mayor and magistrates with slnngshots and with stones' Alas! the men who assail the Democrats, who break up Democratic meetings, who drive Democratic electors from the polls, who deal assassin blows at Democratic leaders, are never brought to justice! Justice is blind to them. But she anvells her eyes and opens her mouth, in full cry, when the sacred persons of the opposition are threatened! That is the difference.

Ladies Beware.

YOU that have double glass, patent, 'balsam sealed never fading Ambrotypes in your possession don't put them in your drawers, or on your table, or any where so that they may come in contact with your clothing, espe-cially during this hot weather. Balsam is a kind of cheap rule turpentine, and, like a discontented negro, there to telling when it will run away, in which case your pic ture is spotted and spoiled, your dresses are bedaubed and soiled, and if the balsam stays between the glasses, it is liable to become yellow or smoky, and sometimes quite black, so that your picture appears to be 'looking through a smoked glass darkly," (this is no fiction, please examine and satisfy yourself.) Not one in four Ambrotypes put up one year age (with balsam) are perfect now; and we will wager that at least four opperators in this city can make better and more durable pictures on single glass than are made by the double glass process. We really believe the only way the latter can be made perfectly se n. B. The Sphereatype is more uniformly perm ore beautiful and pleasing style of picture, and is no preserved in turpentine or balsam. Webster has the exclusive right to make them in Louisville. JEFFERSON CIRCUIT COURT. Montgomery, Davidge & Co-, plaintiffs vs. Le-ming & Christy, and W. C. Trabue, defend-

This guit was brought by plaintiffs to recover from Trabue the amount of two bills of exchange for over $500 each. Plaintiffs alleged that the bills were drawn by plaintiffs and accepted by Leming & Christy and payable to Trabue. The object of the bills was to secure a debt due to plaintiffs from Leming & Christy. Plaintiffs required surety ond Trabue was offered, and in order to get the snrety the bills were drawn as stated and endorsed by Trabue to plaintiffs. The bills were protested for non-payment by Leming & Christy. Desendant Trabue demurred to the petition and argued that the petition showed no cause of action, that the bills as to Trabue were extinguished; that their negotiability had coased as soon as the bills came to the hands of the drawers; that no consideration was shown upon which to rest the special agreement to become snrety for Leming & Christy; that by the law merchant Trabue could not be held bound on the bills, nor by the common law could he be held bound on the special undertaking to become surety, no consideration passing or being shown.

The court, after argument, enstained the de-morrers and held that Trabue was not bound. Plaintiffs obtained leave to amend in order to set up an equitable ground for relief. Riley and Muir for plaintiffs, Stirman and Ben-

Perfection in Art -Every day brings something new. We live in an age of improvement and discovery. Of all the improvements in Art, or Photography, the one made by Troxel recently is the greatest-that of producing natural colors on glass pictures. Scientific men have spent hours of study in order to overcome what seemed to be cause and effect, but to no purpose recently. Troxel, who is a prodigy in his profession, has brought this beautiful art of picture making to perfection. The natural colors of drapery and skin, rosy hue of the cheek, with life-like expression, only go to show the art is perfected. We understand Mr. Troxel leaves soon for Washington and the East in order to submit the discovery to scientific men, and to secure patent on the same. Some of the picture can be seen by calling at his Ambrotype rooms on Main, between Second and Third, over the Honse Telegraph Office. dtf

When the Emperor Napoleon III. undertook to inquire which of the inundated districts were inhabited by the most violent of his opponente, and forthwith betook himself to the pl cated, attended only by the Bishop and Prefect of the Department. Here he mingled familiarly with men whom he knew were thirsting for his blood, and when he got into the boat to visit the scene of ruin he selected his boatmen from among the most avowed and fanatical of his Republican enemies. The utter contempt of danger thus manifested produced a complete reaction in the minds of the people, and persons who had been his bitterest opponents ever since the inaugura-tion of his dynasty, were the first ts rend the air with shouts of Vive l'Empereur!

Doctor James Williams:—For several years paet, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly afflicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestima, nervous irritability, despondency, a sonse of weight in the stomach, and severe pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretened. Fortunately, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in tess than two weeks, indigestion ceased, pain and nervous depression left me, and appetite, with insental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost mi raculous, and my object in writing to you is—a hope that other persons suffering the inspries of Dyspepsia will avail themselves of your efficient remedy.
